

ICLAS Grants FELASA Congress 2022

ICLAS is offering grants to laboratory animal scientists and professionals to attend the FELASA 2022 Congress in Marseille (France) <https://www.felasa2022.eu/>

ICLAS will award three grants of up to 800 € each, and up to 1,000 € for applicants travelling from a non-European country, to cover travel and accommodation expenses (registration to the congress is not covered by the grant).

Graduate and PhD students, young post-doctoral fellows and animal facility professionals (e.g., veterinarians, technicians, etc) working in the field of Laboratory Animal Science are invited to apply.

PRIORITY

Preference will be given to applicants who will demonstrate a willingness and ability to disseminate the information gained at the Congress, and to those who face significant financial impediments to attend international meetings.

THE APPLICATION MUST INCLUDE

A brief letter as application, with your personal data (name, email address, working phone and address)

A brief curriculum vitae (2 pages maximum)

A letter of recommendation (e.g. supervisor, department head, etc)

A brief paragraph on how you would benefit from attending the meeting

A summary of how you would disseminate the experience you would acquire during the meeting, within and outside your home institution

An estimate of accommodation/travel expenses
